香港電子教科書協會
Hong Kong E-Textbook Association

Membership Application Form

Hong Kong E-Textbook Association was established by the approved member of the E-textbook Market Development Scheme launched by the Education Bureau of the Hong Kong Government in April 2014.

Since then, the association has gathered members of e-textbook developers, professionals, and educational institutions and aims to promote and make recommendations on the development of e-textbooks in Hong Kong.

In this digital age, it has become a trend in education to use e-learning resources to enhance student interaction and self-directed learning. We wish to attract more people with insight and vigorously promote the development of information technology in the education sector together. We look forward to you joining!

Our Objectives:

- Provide members with up-to-date news on information technology development in the market.
- Organize different information technology activities annually which provide members with the latest electronic teaching materials and equipment.
- Work with the Education Bureau to participate in information technology development and jointly promote teacher training.
- Strive for the rights, interests, and reasonable protection of the industry.
- Produce publication(s) that bring the latest information of each member directly to the service users.

Membership fee (Updated in 2022):

- Company HK$3,000.00 per year
- Founding members/directors /Individual (College/School/Professor/Principal/Teacher/Other) HK$100.00 per year
